Location. The Rotunda, 4014 Walnut St, Philadelphia, PA 19104, is in West Philadelphia near the campus of the University of Pennsylvania. It is a short subway ride or a 25 minute walk from 30th Street Station, Philadelphia's main train station. Paid parking is available directly across Walnut Street in a parking garage. There is also street parking available in the surrounding area, which is metered on Saturday, and free of charge on Sunday. The Rotunda is an ADA accessible facility.

Hospitality. Please visit our web site phillysacredharp.org/keystone-convention/ for hospitality requests and a list of hotels. Contact Kirsten Jensen, for hospitality requests in advance of the convention: (321) 514-2725, kirstenjensen42@gmail.com.

Public Transportation. Amtrak trains, SEPTA regional rail (including the airport train), and several bus lines stop at 30th Street Station. Exit the station and cross 30th St to enter the subway station at the corner of 30th and Market. Take the Market-Frankford line west two stops to 40th St. Walk south two blocks to Walnut St and turn right. The Rotunda will be on your left, just past the Rave cinema complex. Enter the Rotunda from the left side door, in the alley between it and the cinema.

Driving Directions and Food Drop-Off. From I-76 East or West, take Exit 346A - South Street, which is a LEFT exit. Turn away from Center City and continue on Spruce Street. Turn right on 38th St and left on Walnut. The Rotunda will be on your left, just past the Rave cinema complex at the intersection of 40th and Walnut. The food drop-off point is at the wheelchair access, immediately past the building on Walnut Street.

Parking. The closest parking garage is across Walnut Street from the Rotunda. Street parking is free on Sunday and meter on Saturday. There is some free parking available on Friday after 7pm off Irving Street (see map).

Accessibility. The Rotunda is an ADA accessible facility. An entrance ramp is to the right of the building as you face it from Walnut Street. If you have any concerns, please contact Ruth Wampler, beautifulfriendo5@gmail.com.
